Dedicated To: Mr. Don Jarchow

Mr. Don Jarchow

The yearbook staff dedicates the 1994 VIKING YEAR-BOOK to Mr. Don Jarchow.

Mr. Jarchow was hired by the Marysville School District as Band Director for the High School in 1978. Shortly after coming here, the Junior High band was started under his direction.

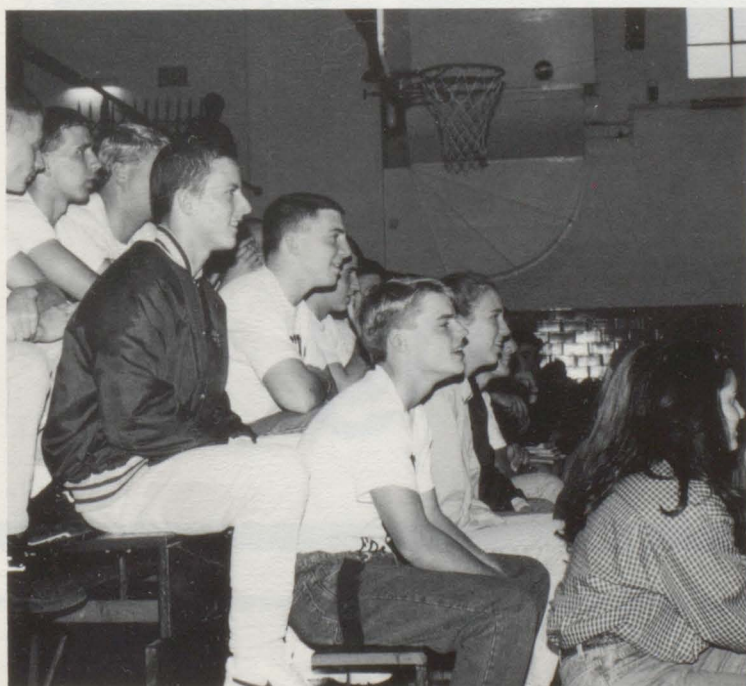

For the past five years he had coached the Quiz Bowl Team.

He died in June of 1993 after sixteen years of service to the Marysville School System.

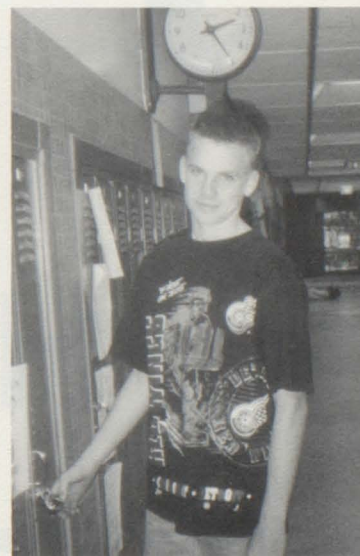

Mr. Jarchow was an enthusiastic, energetic man with a cheerful smile. He loved to help others and will be missed.

Seniors Lisa Bonner and Michelle Zimmer represented Marysville High School during the summer of 1993 at Central Michigan University as they participated in Girls' State, a mock government that lasts a week in partnership with other girls from high schools throughout the state.

The two girls commented that they had learned a lot about government and made many new friends.

Girls' State & Boys' State

Boys' State representatives from Marysville High School were seniors Ryan Steinhaus and Chris Jennings.

Like the girls at Girls' State, the boys were active in a mock government for a week while on the campus of Michigan State with other participants from state high schools.

Valedictorian

Jennifer Thrower

The 1993-1994 Valedictorian award recipient is Jennifer Thrower. She accomplished this with the grade point average of 3.888 out of a 4.34 scale.

Jennifer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil and Vickie Thrower.

Her high school activities included playing softball, school musicals, Student Council, steering committee, and National Honor Society.

Jennifer plans on either attending Spring Arbor Hope College or Calvin College. Jennifer is not actually sure what she wants to pursue, so she is going the famous "undecided" route. She hopes to find something that excites and interests her.

When Jennifer was asked what's your advice for an underclassman trying to balance grades and activities she replied, "You have to make priorities and decide if you want to be involved in every single activity or do less and get grades, but always have fun!"

Salutatorian

Lisa Czarnecki

The 1993-1994 Salutatorian award recipient is Lisa Czarnecki. She was awarded this due to her grade point average of 3.885 out of a 4.34 scale.

Lisa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James and Linda Czarnecki.

Lisa's high school activities included Quiz Bowl, school musicals, assistant director of the senior play, Nature Appreciation Club, Student Council, cross country and steering committee.

Lisa plans on attending the University of Michigan. She will probably enter into a career that deals with either medicine or French.

When Lisa was asked what her advice for an underclassman struggling with grades was, she stated, "Try to put your life into perspective and realize that you have to work hard in high school but enjoy your time too!"

Seniors Take Third

Seniors took third place in this year's homecoming float competition.

The seniors do not necessarily consider winning the most important thing. To them "float building week" is a time in which the seniors come together and create memories that they will hold for a lifetime.

The first few days are for "goofing around" but when it comes to Thursday night it's nothing but an adrenaline rush to get the float done.

The seniors are always proud of their float when they pick it up and take it to the school to be judged.

Class Officers

Officers for the senior class were Patty Pozios, president, Lindsey Clayton, vice-president, Michelle Zimmer, secretary, and Telly Schenck treasurer.

Patty Pozios and Lindsey Clayton have been officers for their entire high school careers.

With their hard work and leadership abilities the senior class has been and will continue to be a great success.

Patty stated, "I want to thank all the officers for all their help and I wish everyone the best of luck! See ya' all at the reunions."

Lindsey stated, "I think that our class has a bunch of different types of people but they can always come together for class activities."

Advisor

Mrs. Gay Venia

Mrs. Gay Venia has been the chief advisor for the class for the last four years.

She stated, "The class of 1994 has been a pleasure to work with due to their boundless energy and overall enthusiasm. These qualities have enabled them to be successful at their various activities."

She added, "The class had four years of success."

Class Motto

Hold on to your dreams for they dwell in the stars,
Keep your hopes high and don't forget who you are
Remember the good times and the bad ones too,
Always look back and when you're in doubt,
Remember these four years and how it worked out
And when opportunity comes to knock on your door
Take the memories with you....Class of 1994

Class Song

"I Won't Forget You"

"I Won't Forget You" - Poison

Late at night I close my eyes and think of how things could have been
And when I think back
I remember some words you had said to me
It's better to have lost at love, than never to have loved at all.

I won't forget you baby
even though I could
I won't forget you baby
even though I should.

Sometimes in my head
I can still see pictures of you
And I laugh to myself
When I think of all those crazy things we used to do.
Although the miles come between us
just between you and me

I won't forget you baby
even though I could
I won't forget you baby
even though I should.

I should let you fade away
but that just wouldn't be me
Oh baby

Although miles come between us
just between you and me
I won't forget you baby
even though I could
I won't forget you baby
even though I should.

Senior Play

"Up the Down Staircase"

This year the senior class presented their senior play, "Up the Down Staircase", on December 2, 3, 4.

The fictional high school of this play is an overcrowded, understaffed New York City school with problems that are sometimes hilarious and sometimes heartbreaking.

Sylvia Barret, played by Milissa Eagen, is a first year teacher with high hopes and dreams of educating young adults. She finds more of a challenge than she anticipates after her first day at Calvin Coolidge High School. The rebellious students and demanding faculty are too much for the young teacher.

The biggest obstacle is a problem student, Joe Ferone, played by Chris Jennings. Joe and his fellow students have found the educational system to be out-of-touch and a waste of time.

Through her enthusiasm for learning and her strong desire to communicate to the students she uses a suggestion box as her last hope of survival in reaching the students.

Her relationship with Paul Barringer, played by Ian

Stevenson, the handsome writer and English teacher, creates a challenge for Sylvia in her personal life.

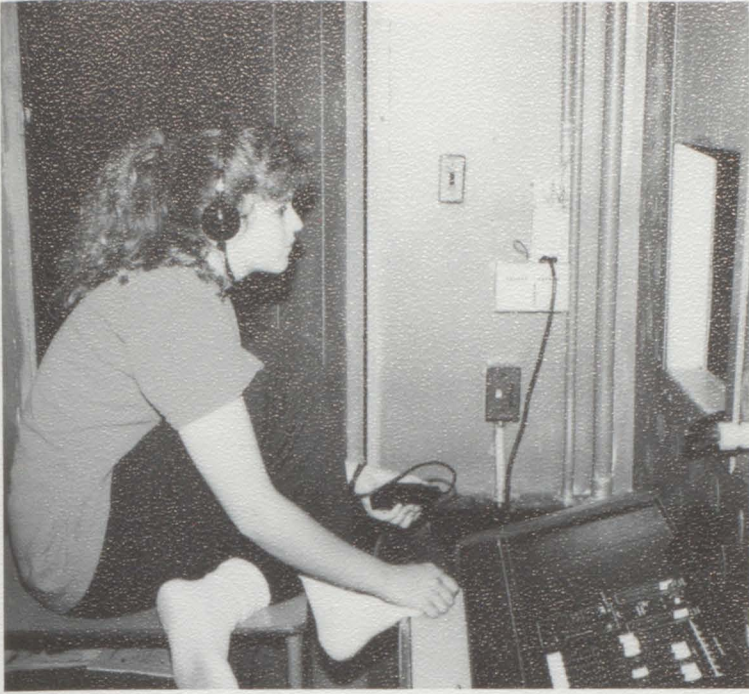

Sylvia's companion and advisor, Bea Schachter, played by JoAnn Turner, helps her see through the obstacles at Calvin Coolidge High School and her dreams and ambitions become a reality for her.

The cast included: Milissa Eagen, JoAnn Turner, Chris Jennings, Ian Stevenson, Craig Kaufman,

Jerri Rumenapp, Becky Smith, Lisa Bonner, Celeste Lenn, John Folco, Buddy

Bernardo, Steven MacPherson, Eric Pavlov, Dawn Santo, Jenny Frendt, Angela Montoya, Ray Trudeau, Angela Brinker, Jim Ganley, Kim Luckritz (Lori LePla, Ryan Steinhaus, Telly Schenck, Jaime Lane, Joe Balinski, Greg Campbell, Patty Reed, Jodie Hurley, Jeannie Robles, Carrie Weyand, Stefanie Horn, Amie Cutler.

The play was directed by Mr. Dennis Duso. The student director was Lisa Czarnecki.

Lora Howard watches the play from the light booth as she adjusts the lighting.

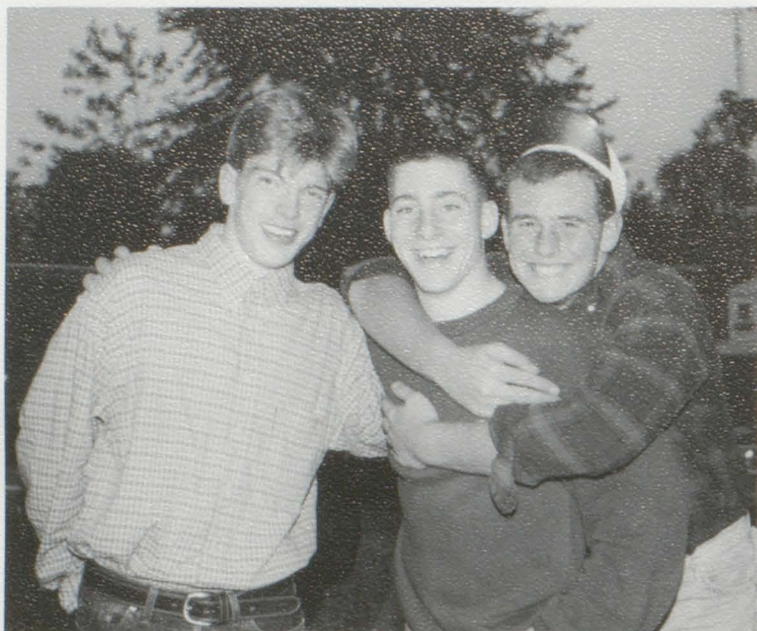

Milissa Eagen, Chris Jennings and Craig Kaufman perform a tense scene from the play.

Kim Luckritz as Jill Norris sells the "Clarion" during the first act of the play.

Milissa Eagen helps Eric Pavlov after his characters fell and bumped his head in the first act.

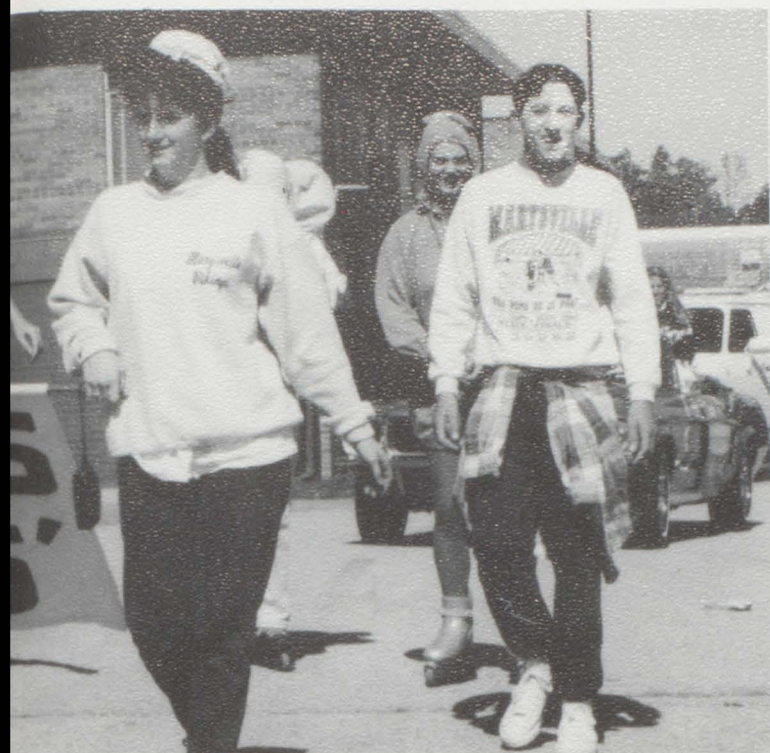

Mark Caza and Mat King are on their way to introduce Seth Ryding to some of the members of the junior class.

Juniors 3-PEAT

The junior class chose the theme "Soar To A Victory" for this year's float competition and featured Dumbo the flying elephant.

The float was constructed at Sarah Augustyn's house.

Sarah said, "I was really happy with the number of people that came to help. Everyone did an excellent job working together."

Bill Slota stated that, "Everyone coming together and working as a team brought us our third win."

Kerri & Gregg

Kerri Klieman was selected by her classmates as the 1993-1994 Junior Princess for this year's Homecoming court.

Kerri stated that she was very surprised, happy, and honored that her classmates chose her to represent the junior class.

Kerri is the daughter of Beverly Hija and Ed Klieman.

Gregg Raymo was chosen by his classmates as this year's Junior Class Prince.

Gregg's reaction was one of "surprise".

Gregg is the son of Jim and Pat Raymo.

What's Next?

"Next year I hope my class can work together. We will be the leaders, and we should be able to show the following classes that they too can work together and get along to do some great things." -Ammie Currie

"I hope next year will be the best year of high school for everyone." -Andrea Clyne

"I hope the Senior Class of '95" can have a successful and memorable year." -Kellie Houck

"I hope next year will be fun, exciting and memorable. I want it to be full of success and excitement in all we do." -Mat King

“Night Under The Stars”

The class of 95's Junior Prom was a night to remember.

The Junior class voted to have the dance at Marysville High School.

The date was Friday, January 21, 1994.

The theme was “Night Under the Stars.”

Four pillars boxed in the dance floor. Purple, teal, black and silver balloons were everywhere. White Christmas lights on white leafless trees gave the Juniors and their dates just enough light to dance by.

The Junior Prom song was “Angel Eyes” by the Jeff Healey Band.

Mrs. Beverly Davis, the chief advisor, was a great helper and a wonderful supporter and advisor.

Mat King embraces his true love, Barbee Dunn, as they dance the night away!

Laura Rubio and Joel Fett pause in her house just before leaving for dinner.

Sarah Augustyn and Tanya Stocker await their knights in shining armor.

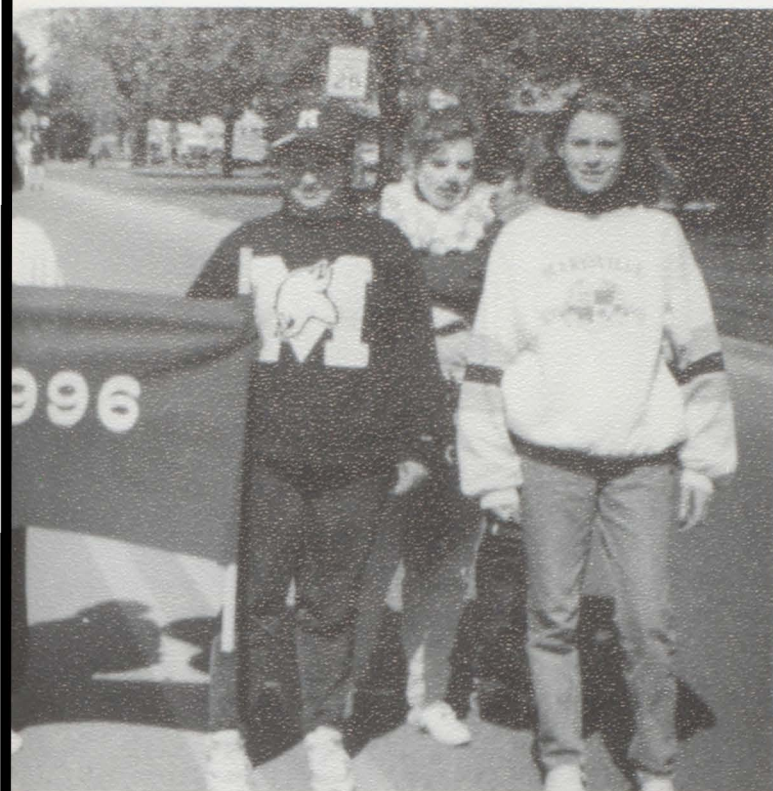

Sophomores cheer on the varsity football players during the Marysville fight song.

Sophs Second

The sophomore class came in with a close second place in the float building competition.

The sophomore float theme was "Time To Burn The Devils". The float featured Lumieu, the candlestick, and Cogsworth, the clock, from the Disney film "Beauty and the Beast".

The float was constructed at Anthony LaGruth's home.

Noelle Anderson said, "It was a lot of fun and a big improvement over last year".

Kim Adams

Joe Haligowski

Kim & Joe

Kim Adams and Joe Haligowski were chosen by the sophomore class to represent them as class Homecoming Prince and Princess.

Princess Kim Adams is the daughter of Bill and Linda Adams.

Her hobbies include playing softball, volleyball and her clarinet.

Her reaction to being on the court was that she was very excited and honored to represent her class.

Prince Joe Haligowski is the son of David and Janet Haligowski.

Joe's hobbies include playing the guitar, listening to music, and playing athletics.

He was very surprised and honored to be selected on the Homecoming court.

Class Officers

The sophomore class officers were elected last year. The elected officers were Joel Wesch, president, Kim Adams, vice-president, Noelle Anderson, secretary, and Tim Sanders, treasurer.

The class officers were responsible for Homecoming week, the class steering committee, fundraising, and preparing for next year.

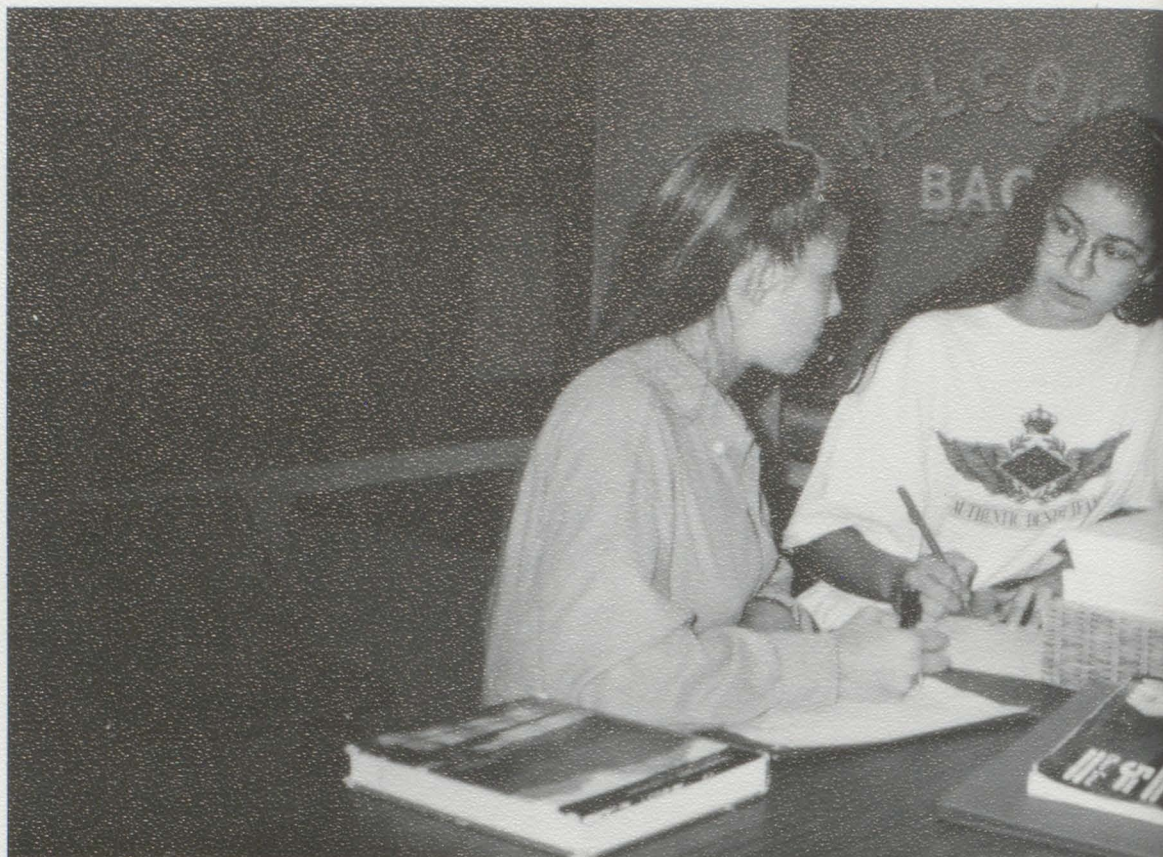

The goal this year was to insure that the class has enough money for next year's Junior Prom.

Sophomores In Action

Mr. Bill Lindke's mathematics class is hard at work on a problem that is part of a homework assignment.

Kelly Kriesch and Nicole Thomas stop to exchange information and chat between classes.

Sophomores Heidi Whiting and Brooke West stop at the Student Services office to ask a question.

Amy Woods is all involved in the school spirit filling the halls during homecoming week.

Sophomore Jamie Partridge pauses in the hall before leaving the building for the day.

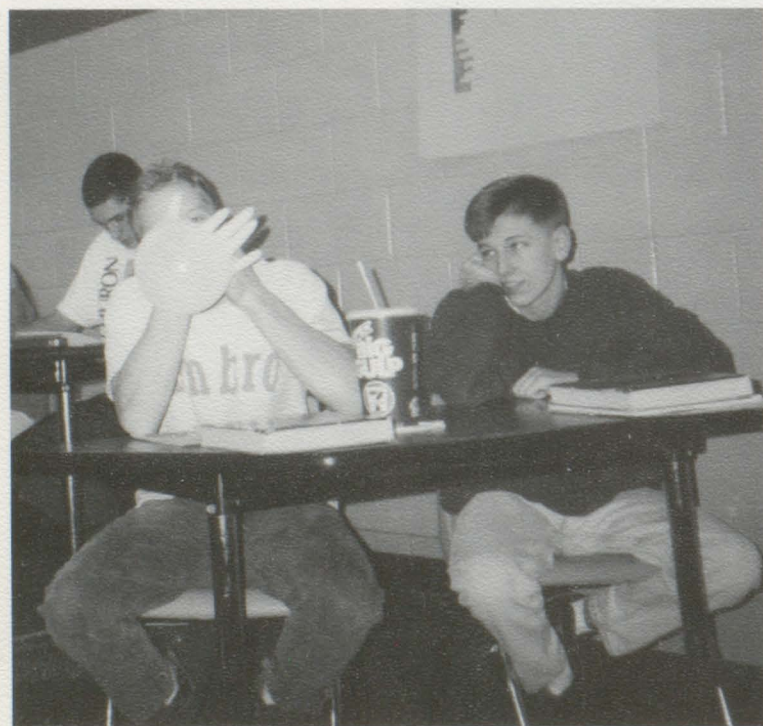

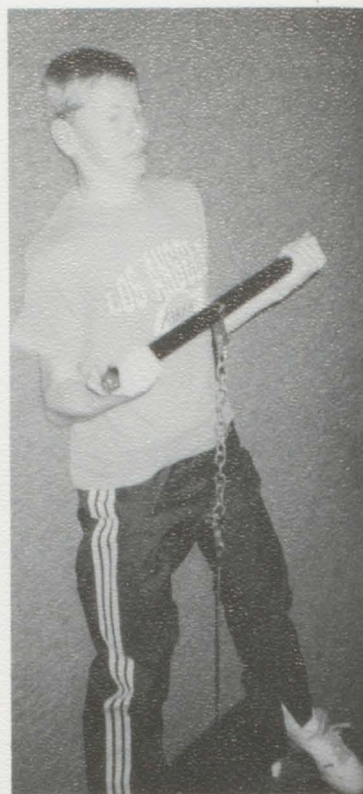

Shane Hollingshead and Josh DeLand work on the sophomore float making and attaching plastic flowers.

Frosh Begin

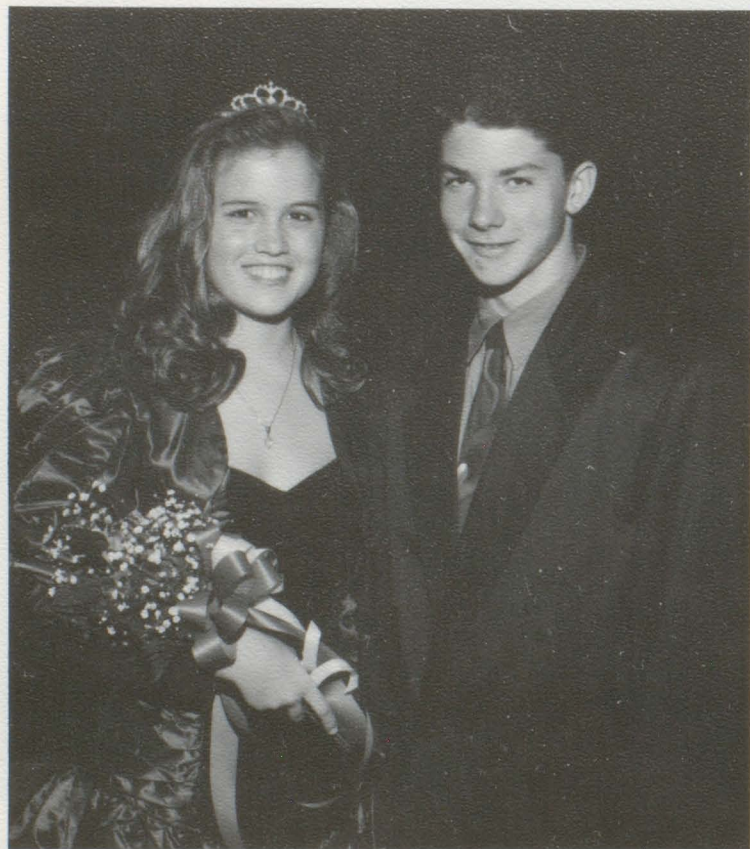

The Freshmen class really put forth a great effort when building their Homecoming float this year.

There was a lot of participation and cooperation amongst all the students.

It was a new experience and they really pulled together as a whole and let it happen.

The float was called "Pete's Dragon Us To Victory".

The building of the float took place at Kevin Knuth's house.

Princess
Heather Kearns

Prince
Mike Parniske

Heather & Mike

Heather Kearns was chosen by the freshmen class to represent them as the Homecoming Princess.

Princess Heather was escorted by her father, Steve Kearns.

She said, "It really felt good to know that my classmates wanted me to represent the class".

Mike Parniske was chosen by his classmates to be the class Prince.

He was escorted by his parents Dave and Chris Parniske.

Mike did not have a reaction about being selected to be on the court.

What's It Like?

Michelle Pionk and Ryann O'Boyle found this year's Homecoming very exciting.

Michelle thought there was a lot of togetherness while building the float but not enough time to work on the float.

Ryann thought the dance was great and she loved the parade.

Kevin Knuth and Michelle Pionk think the freshman year is great because of the competitiveness of sports.

Kevin also believed, as did many freshmen, that you have freedom and older friends.

A New Beginning

Everyone goes through it. The freshman year in high school. All those firsts, all those fears.

The freshman year begins with the first day of school. One has to figure out his or her homeroom, what extension period is, where the locker is, how come the combination doesn't work, where's the book store, what books do I need, forgetting one's book fee, difference between A & B lunch, finding classes, and where are my friends?

One of the first things that the freshmen class did was elect class officers.

They chose Heather Kearns as their president, Michelle Pionk was chosen for vice president, Ryann O'Boyle and Amberly Zimmer were chosen for secretary and treasurer respectively.

This year's freshman class advisor was Mr. Barry Meier. He will continue to be their class advisor during the rest of their high school career.

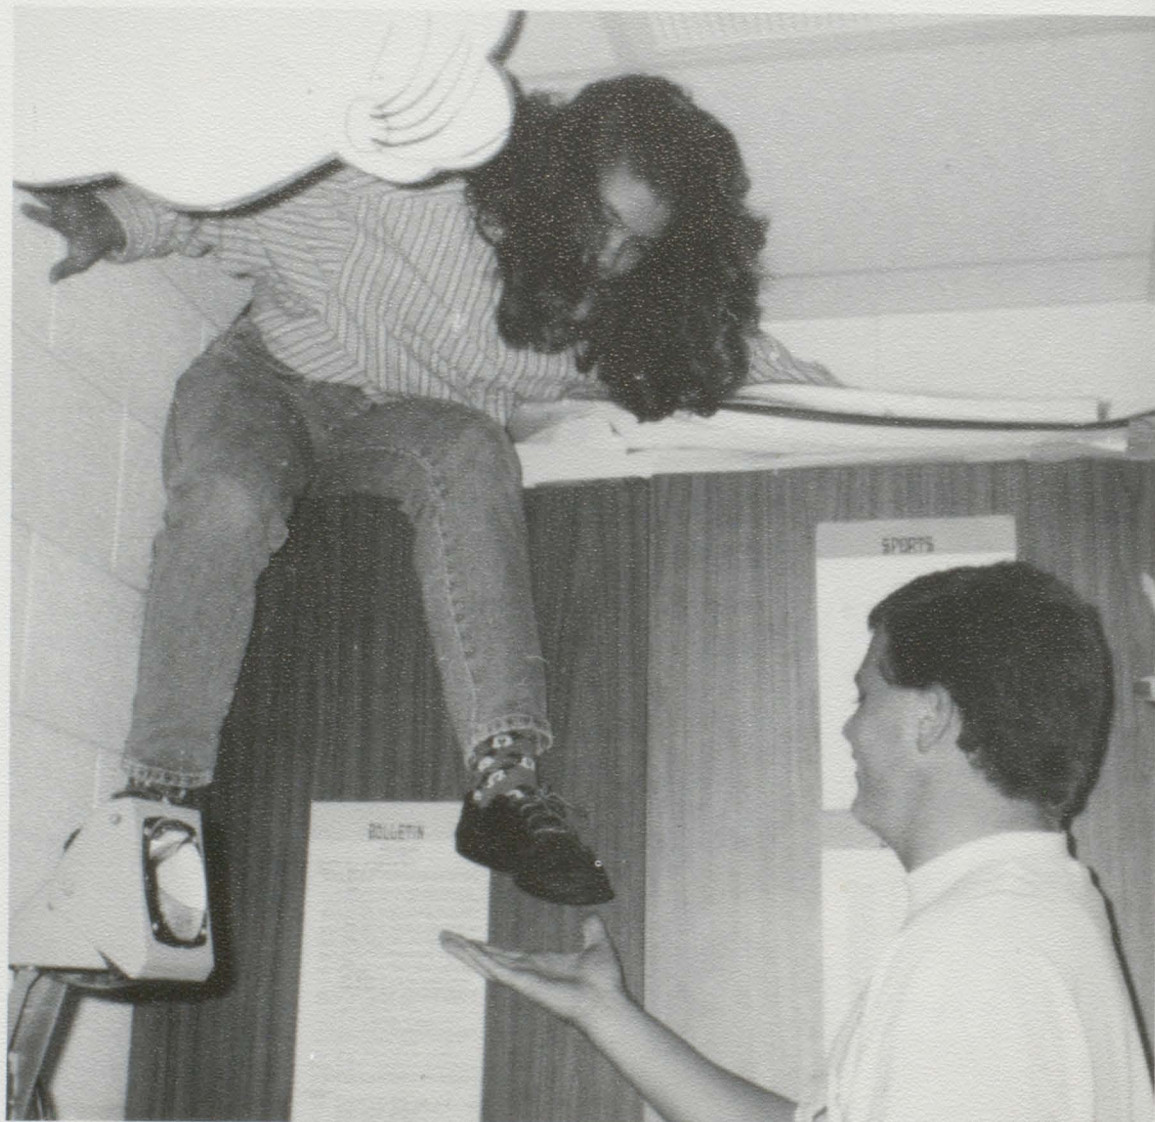

The freshman class was also introduced to their first fund raiser. They sold candy at Christmas time.

Yearbook Editors

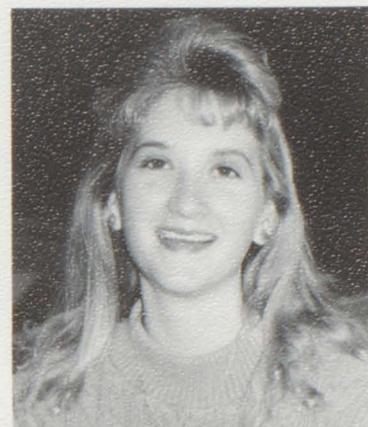

The Senior Co-Editors for the 1994 yearbook were Kim Luckritz and Patty Pozios.

They both put a lot of time and effort into this year's yearbook. They also were very involved in many other school activities.

Patty Pozios was S.A.D.D. Vice President, President of the Senior class, and an officer on the Student Council.

Kim Luckritz worked co-op in the morning, was a member of S.A.D.D., the steering committee and the Student Council.

Carrie Yeager
Sports Editor

Dana VanDyke
Staff Editor

Dana VanDyke worked with the Staff section of the yearbook.

She has been taking yearbook for three years.

She said, "Yearbook has been a great learning experience. I'm glad I took it my last high school year. It has been a lot of fun."

Bonnie Burns
Business Manager

Bonnie Burns was in charge of managing the business involved with the yearbook while being in the class for the first time.

She commented, "I really enjoyed helping out Mr. Schmorow and working on the yearbook."

The yearbook record keeping was her domain.

Tricia Wilkerson
Underclassmen Editor

Second year yearbook student Tricia Wilkerson was the Underclassmen editor.

She stated, "I enjoy being part of the yearbook and plan to continue next year."

Tricia was adept at laying-out, writing, and photographing much of the underclassmen sections.

Traci Eagen
Special Assignment Editor

Third year student Carrie Yeager worked on many sections of the yearbook and was the Sports editor.

Traci Eagen was the Special Assignment editor and was instrumental in developing many of the special features in the yearbook. This was her second year.

1994 VIKING Yearbook Staff

The 1994 VIKING yearbook was compiled and created by students from all four grades — four freshmen, two sophomores, six juniors, and fifteen seniors.

In September, the class selects a cover for the yearbook and decides what is going to go on each page.

The pages are then divided among the staff.

With the pages assigned, many responsibilities follow. Each student is responsible for page design, page layout, gathering photographs, selecting photographs, writing headlines, stories, and picture captions, and putting everything all together into a final package for the yearbook company.

While this work is being done, each student has anoplay advertisement to businesses and organizations. This activity takes most of first semester, and without it, the yearbook would be much more expensive for each student.

Co-editor Patty Pozios stated, "Yearbook was exciting. Deadlines are very stressful. It can be rough sometimes."

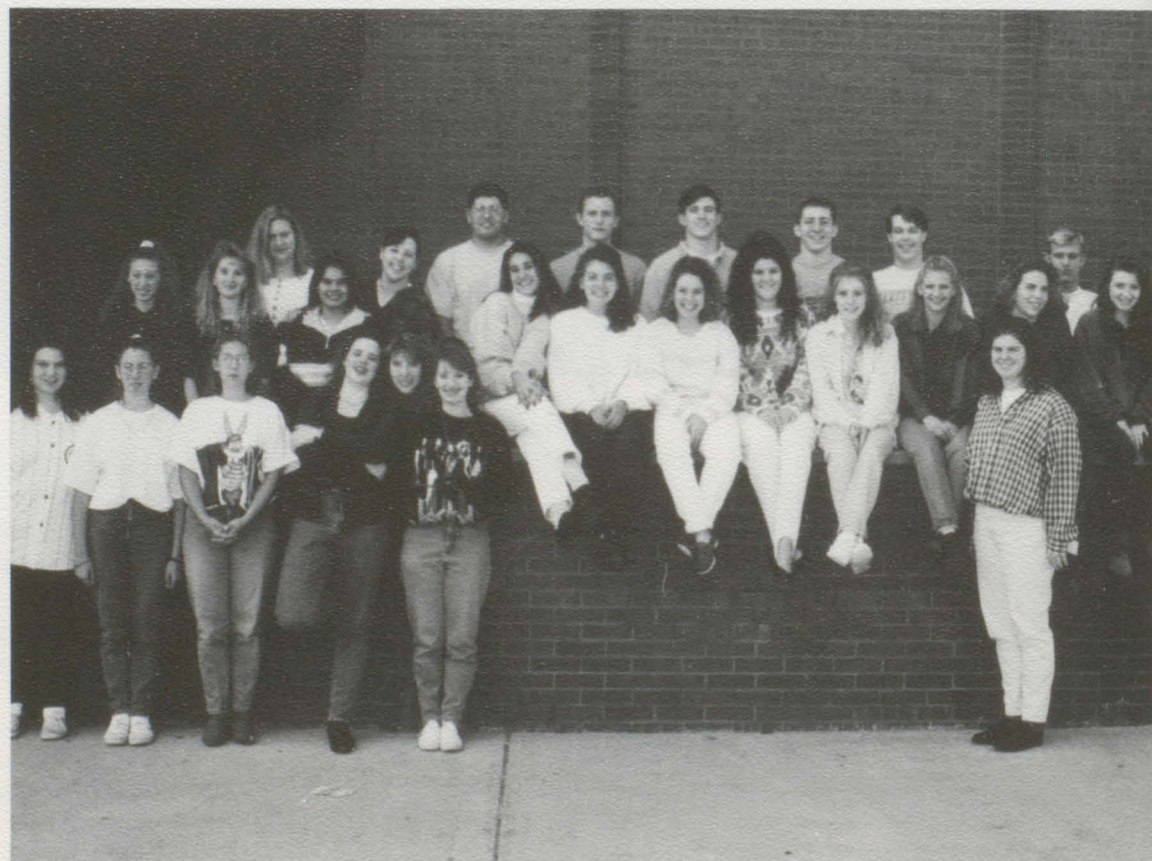

Fellow co-editor Kim Luckritz commented, "It gets frustrating, but we manage. In order to make things work smoothly you have to have positive attitudes."

Obviously, they did it.

Mat King and Don Wilson work on a page while Lou Telegadas and T.C. English look on.

Students From Foreign Lands

This year Marysville High School had the opportunity and privilege to host three foreign exchange students Saho Horiguchi, Seth Ryding and Zoriy Elterman.

Saho is a sophomore from Yokohama, Japan. She spent the year with Roger and Linda Bundy and their two sons.

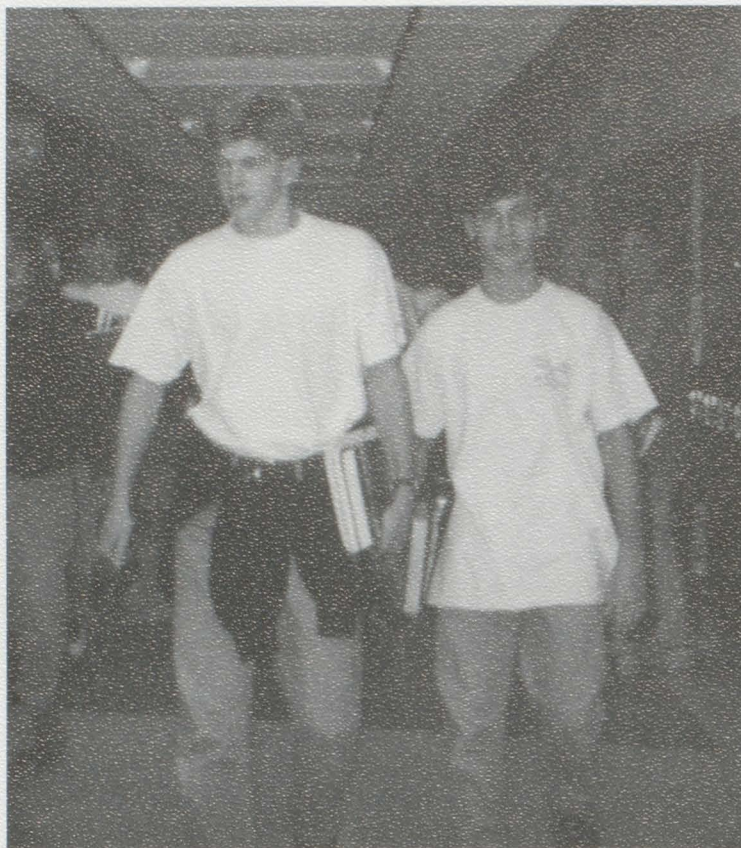

She played the trumpet for the Marysville Viking Regiment during both marching and concert seasons.

Saho said that some differences from her school in Japan and Marysville High School are that students don't elect their own classes, school administration elects the subjects they will take. The students also stay in the same classroom all day long and the teachers change rooms. Japanese students wear uniforms to school and are not allowed to wear pierced earrings.

In comparing Japan to the United States, Saho said that, "Americans are more friendly than Japanese." She also said that prices for goods are cheaper here than in Japan.

Seth is a junior from Valentina Sweden. He spent his year with John and Kathy Wesch and their son Joel.

Seth plays hockey with the Port Huron Midgets A.A.

Senior Seth Ryding and host brother Joel Wesch walk together on their way to class.

While students at Marysville call their teachers by their last names, students in Sweden call their teachers by their names. Other differences between Marysville High School and Seth's school in Sweden are that he has the same students in each class in Sweden, so he's with the same group all day. His classes are chosen by his school administration.

In Sweden you have to be 18 to get a driver's license.

Seth said that he liked Marysville High School because, "it's never boring and also because some teachers are helpful understanding words."

Seth would like everyone to know that being an exchange student was sometimes lonely so if you ever want to ask a question about an exchange student or their country, then just ask them.

Zoriy is a senior from Nazchik, Russia. He stayed with host family Roland and Shannon Piper and host brother Dan Anderson.

Among the differences between Marysville High School and Zoriy's Russian school were that his school in Russia chose his classes and he now has less homework. In Russia, as in Sweden, you must be 18 to get a driver's license.

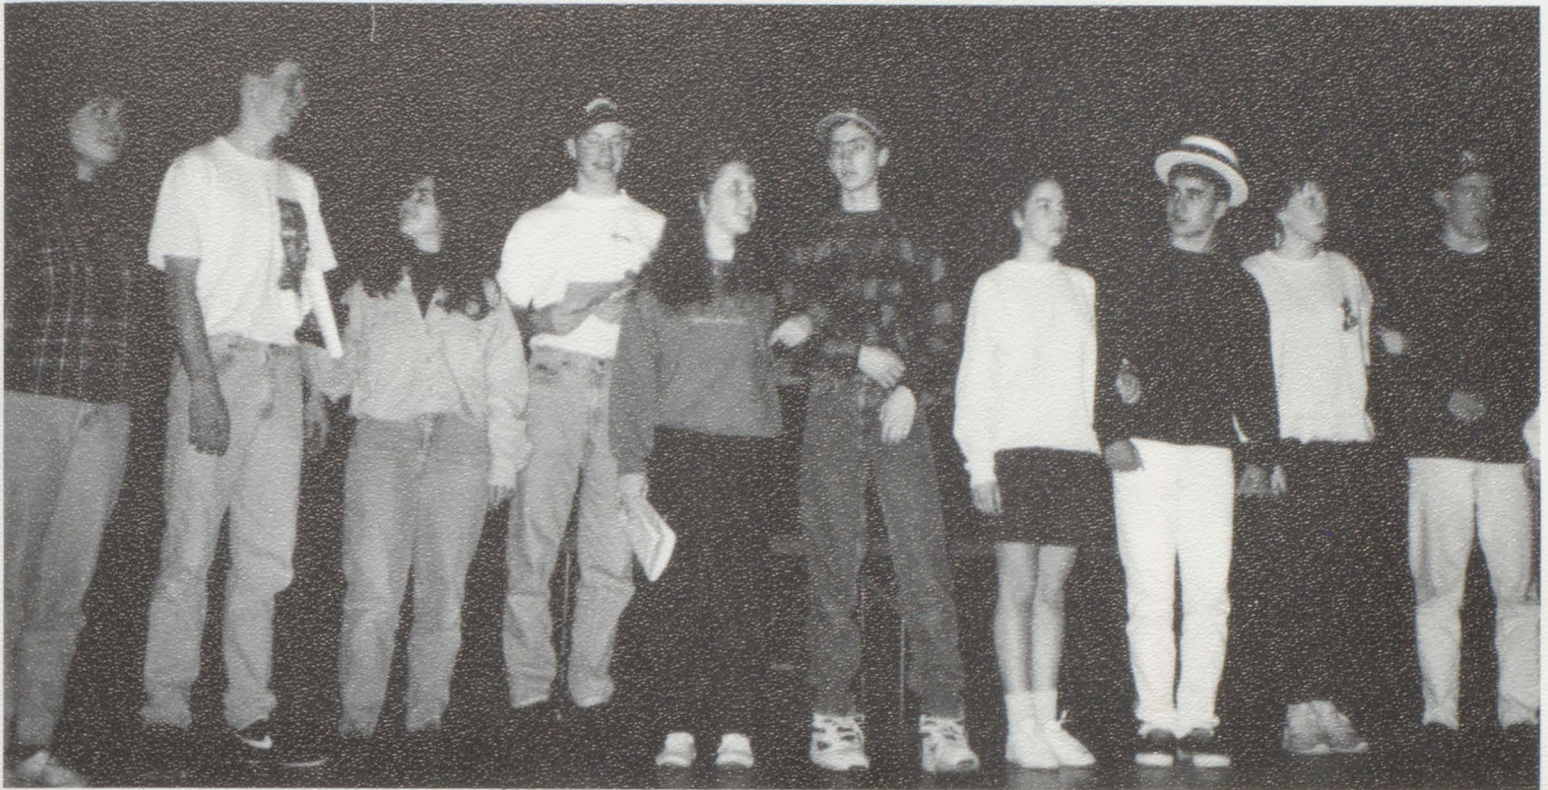

Zoriy planned on going to either Florida or New York and also Washington D.C. before he returned to Russia.

After returning to Russia, he will take an examination and then study at a college or university to be either an economist or a diplomat.

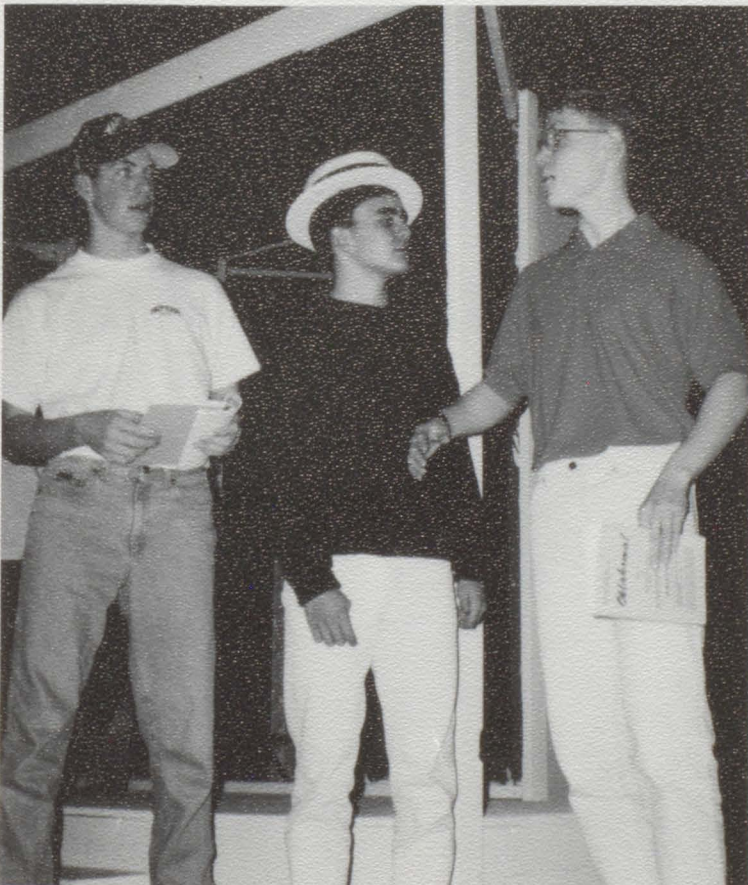

Senior Zoriy Elterman, from Nazchik Russia, is at his locker in between classes.

PERFORMING ARTS

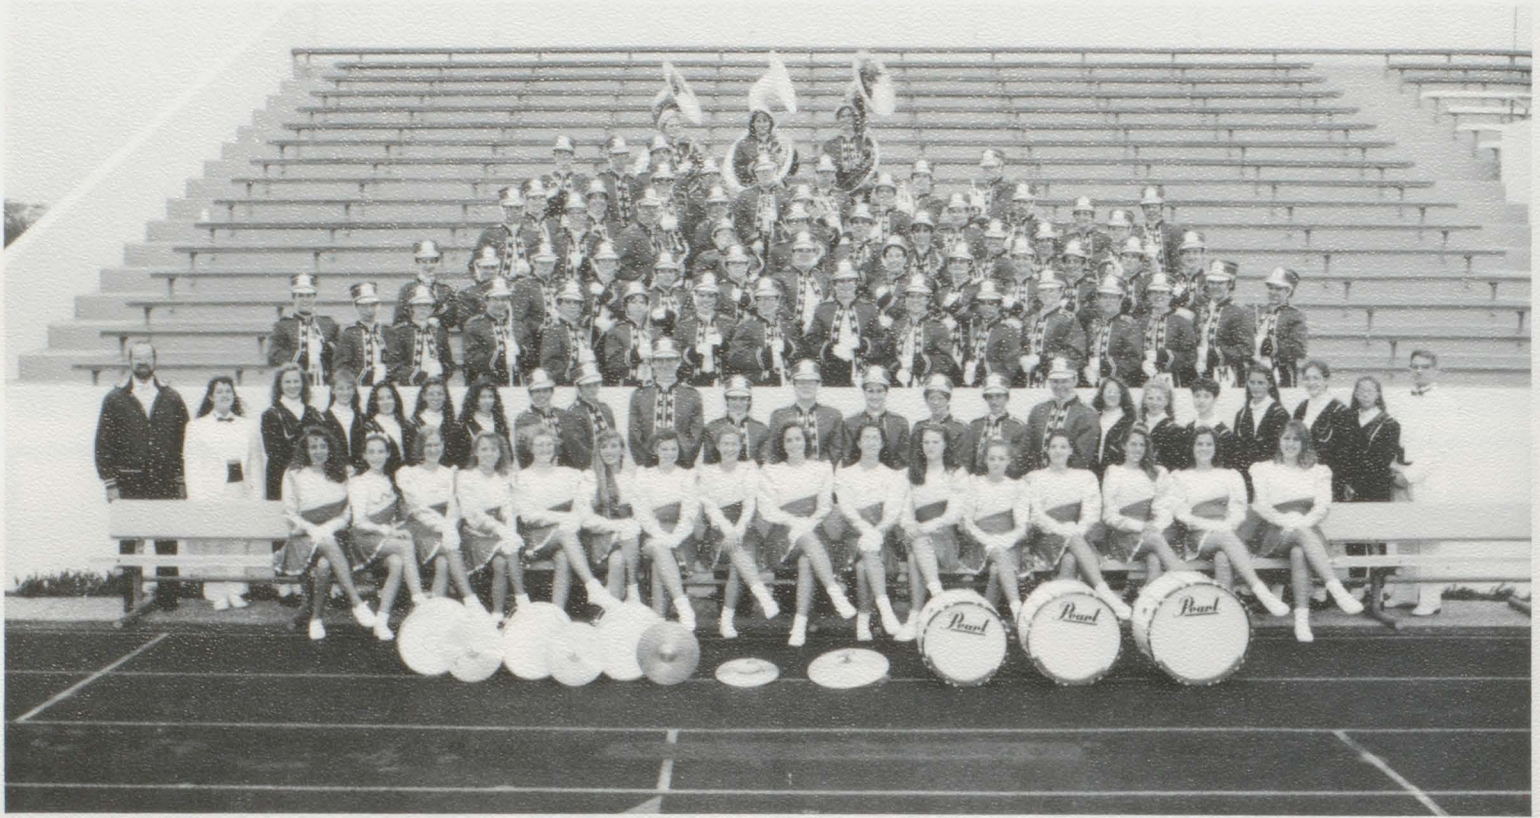

The Spectrum put on an exciting performance at a football pep assembly.

Milissa Eagen, Jennifer Sygit, Lori LePla, and Carrie Weyand sing during Academic Awards.

1993-1994 Viking Regiment

"Strike Up The Band!"

The Marysville marching band, better known as the Viking Regiment, has competed in three competitions.

They competed at Grand Blanc, Clarkston, and took a first place in their division at Montrose.

They also went to the M.S.B.O.A. competition, at Lamphere this year, and received a 2nd Division.

Senior Drum Major John Folco and Junior Drum Major Shannan Hibbard seemed very pleased with the band's progress. With 103 members and out of that 30 freshmen, they have come a long way from their 31 member beginning.

Kimberly Adams, Stephanie Benson, Tracie Biondo, Jennifer Boehm, Rebecca Boehm, Eric Buckland, Mark Caza, Meggan Charney, Jennifer Clement, Andrea Clyne, Patricia Cox, Ammie Currie, Christopher Dimick, Jennifer Dlugowski, Milissa Eagen, Rachel East, John Folco, Heather Garety, Donald Goddard, Angela Grace, Dawn Haney, Shannan Hibbard, Lisa Holowitz, Angie Holsbeke, Saho Horiguchi, Lora Howard, Jacob Huysentruyt, Rebecca Jones, Thomas Kaski, Becky Kaufman, Brian Koss, Tara Kota, Nicole Kwiatkowski, Kelly Lotze, Rebecca Lotze, Jamie MacDonald, Stephen MacPherson, Cari Malone, Tami Moore, Johann Morse, Faith Neumann, Jason Nofs, Gary Orr, Jill Parniske, Eric Pavlov, Kristine Pelliccia, Jacquelin Reed, Patricia Reed, Jackie Furtah, Kristy Rich, Jeffery Richards, Lori Richards, Kelly Riley, Amy Roatenberry, Amy Robb, Dawn Santo, Kathleen Schmitt, Sara Schmitt, Kristie Siler, Christopher Smith, Kimberly Smith, Kimberly Sparks, Leah Spresser, Jennifer Sygit, Nicole Thomas, Raymond Trudeau, Joann Turner, Jamie Warsinski, Scott Webb, Janette Weeks, Ryan Welser, Lisa Wesch, Anita Wisniewski, Melissa Wolff, Audra Wurmlinger, Jade Zuege, Jessica Ayers, Kellie Baldwin, Andrea Bauer, Tracy Brinker, Rachel Bullard, Rebecca Campbell, Gina Cornwell, Amanda Cutler, Noel Dellofano, Renee Eagen, Susan Kaski, Heather Kearns, Jennifer Larese, Christie Malone, Shelly Mann, Amy Mino, Stephanie O'Mara, Rebecca Smith, Jessica Stephens, Angela Stocker, Brooke West, Heidi Whiting, Corey Wood, Darcy Wood, Tracy Eagen, Kelly Ayers.

Drum Majors Shannan Hibbard and John Folco lead the Viking Regiment onto the field at a football game.

Freshman percussionist, Scott Webb, awaits his cue in the "Pit".

Milissa Eagen and Jason Noffs play for the crowd in the Community Homecoming parade.

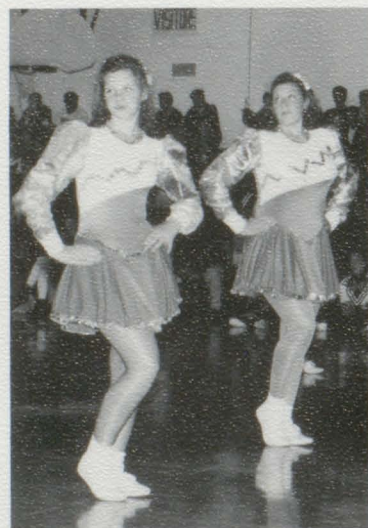

Rachel East and Heather Garety play with the Regiment for the school at the Homecoming Pep Rally.

Flags & Spectrum

SPORTS

Freshmen Heather Kearns and Laura Sadler are extremely excited during their swim meet.

This year's Girls' Varsity Basketball team runs on to the basketball court at the start of the game.

Cheering Them On!

A group of students gather together to take a picture while the team takes a time out.

Lindsey Clayton and Kara Dickinson say cheese while Amberly Zimmer and Mandy Jones await the game.

Varsity Cheerleaders

"Pumped" All Year!

Stefanie Horn, Carley Uppler and Jaime Lane perform a cheer at Viking stadium.

Senior cheerleader Jeannie Robles prepares for a jump after being introduced.

Lisa Bonner and Stefanie Horn soar high while working on a trampoline during practice.

Coach Laura Breidenich and the cheerleading squad gather with Santa Claus.

Varsity Football

Senior John Hincerick completes an impressive touchdown catch from Jason Hill.

This year's 1993 Varsity Football Team was very successful.

After an opening close-game loss against Port Huron Northern the team came back with a lot of hard work and determination to complete a regular season record of 8-1.

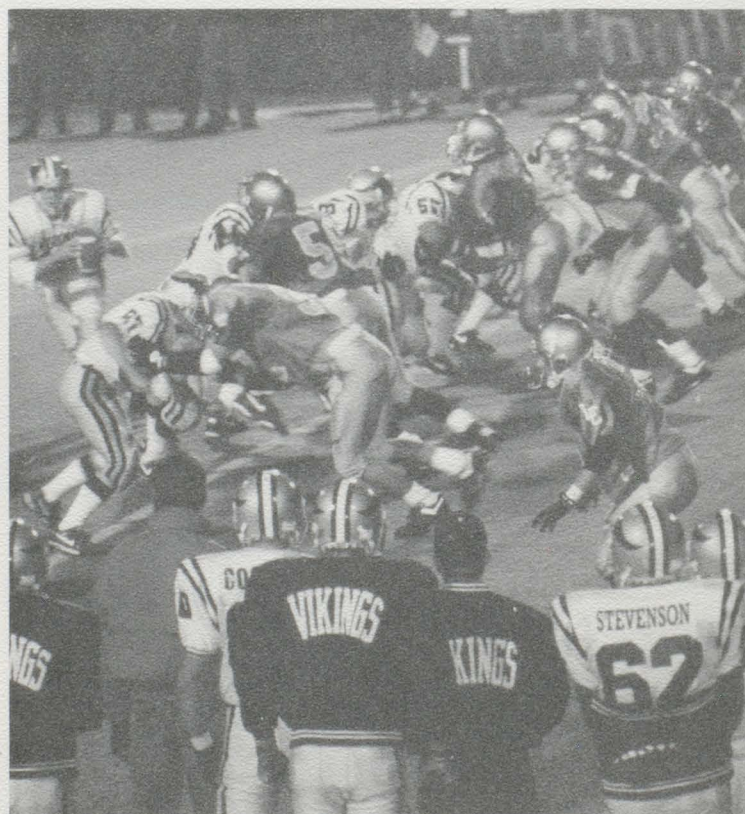

The team would have qualified and advanced in the state football playoffs, but were prevented from doing so by a state eligibility ruling that, for playoff purposes, made the team record 5-4.

The team was considered to be one in a long line of great Marysville football teams.

Sophomore Aaron Quain runs out from the tunnel before the big football game.

Joe Pendergraff, Troy Eagle and Aaron Quain give Jason Hill some room to pass.

Girls' Basketball

The Girls' Varsity Basketball team had a very successful season with a 15-5 regular season and second place S.C.A.L. finish.

A great win during the season was against rival St. Clair.

Coach Paul Jackson said,

"I hate to see the season end. It's a great group of quality people. They play hard and care for each other. This group has made great efforts for our program by spending time in the off season dedicating themselves."

Senior co-captain Telly Schenck leads the team onto the court prior to a game with Sarnia St. Patrick.

Sarah Fults receives encouraging high fives from her teammates when announced at the start of a game.

Senior co-captain Lindsey Clayton goes up strong for a power lay-up during a key basketball game.

Junior guard Erin Snyder goes up for a jumpshot from the corner against Sarnia St. Patrick.

Cross Country

This year the Marsyville Cross Country Boys' and Girls' teams were coached by Mr. Mac Domke and assisted by Mr. Steve Rogers.

The boys' team was led by captain Ryan Cooley.

They ended the league dual meet season as undefeated SCAL champs with a 6-0 record.

The girls were led by captain Patty Reed.

They were second to Algonac in the SCAL league dual meets with a 5-1 record.

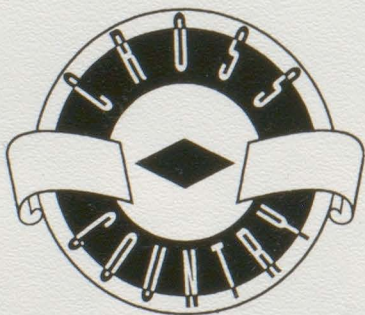

Senior Christi Malone and Junior Rachel Edwards pace themselves for a hill.

Junior Kelli Woomer fights to take the lead in the 500 free-style swimming race.

Girls' Swimming

The 1993-1994 varsity girls' swimming team made history by being the first Viking girls swim team. Being their first year, they did great.

There were 18 girl swimmers. Julianne Whitehead was appointed the captain for this year's team. This year's girls' swim team was coached by Ms. Julie Master.

Their first year record was a good one with 5 wins and 4 losses.

Everyone is waiting for the second year.

Freshman swimmer Jackie Wulffenstein starts the 50 meter free style in the Viking swimming pool.

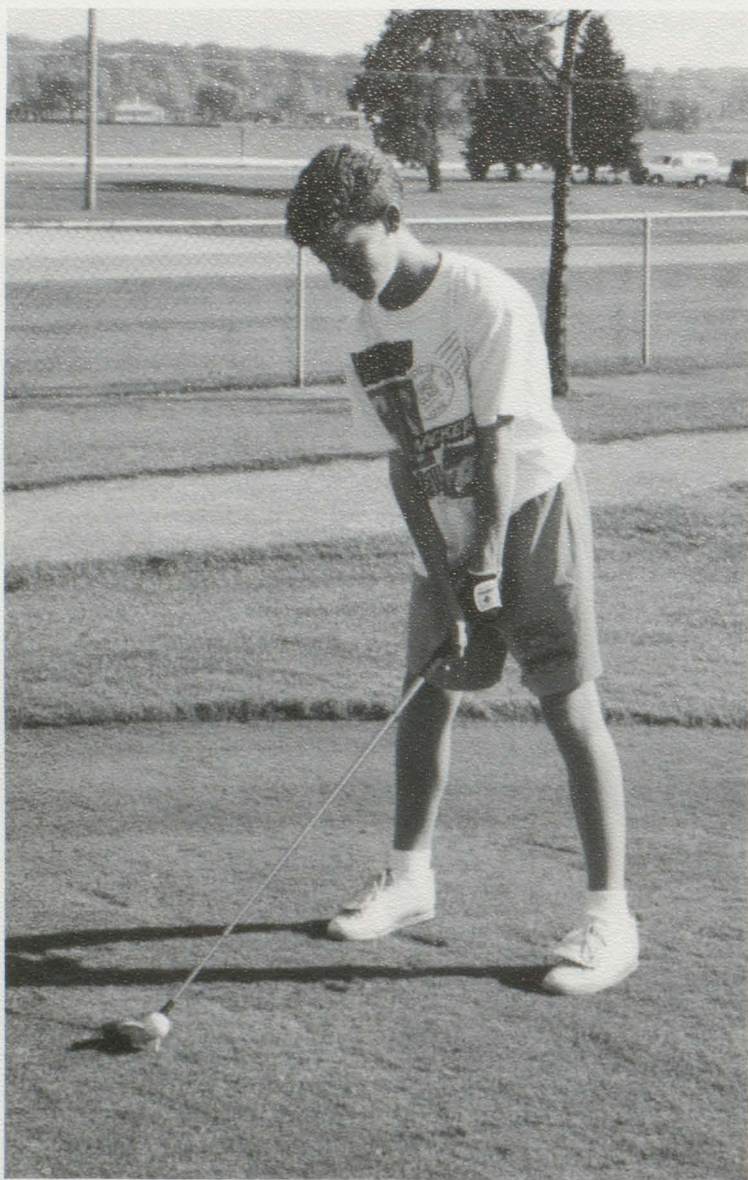

Jodie Hurley, Dawn Santo, Becky Smith, Becky Sadler, and Jennifer Alexander enjoy Senior Night.

Girl' swim team captain Julianne Whitehead starts to leave the pool after a warm-up.

Varsity Golf

The golf team had an excellent season. They were S.C.A.L. champions with a 9-3 record and also won the league tournament. Overall, they finished the season at 10-6.

Golf coach Mr. Ray Martin commented, "At the beginning of the season when the players showed up for their first practice we weren't sure what to expect. But with good effort and a consistent desire to improve we ended up with a very successful season. Proof, that if you hang in there, it is going to pay off."

Hockey

(LtoR): C. Nurenberg, S. Bedford, B. Coates, T. Rosbury, D. Jolicouer and T. Shivers are the senior members.

The Marysville Hockey team really pulled together this year.

Brian Coates was the captain of the team and the lead scorer.

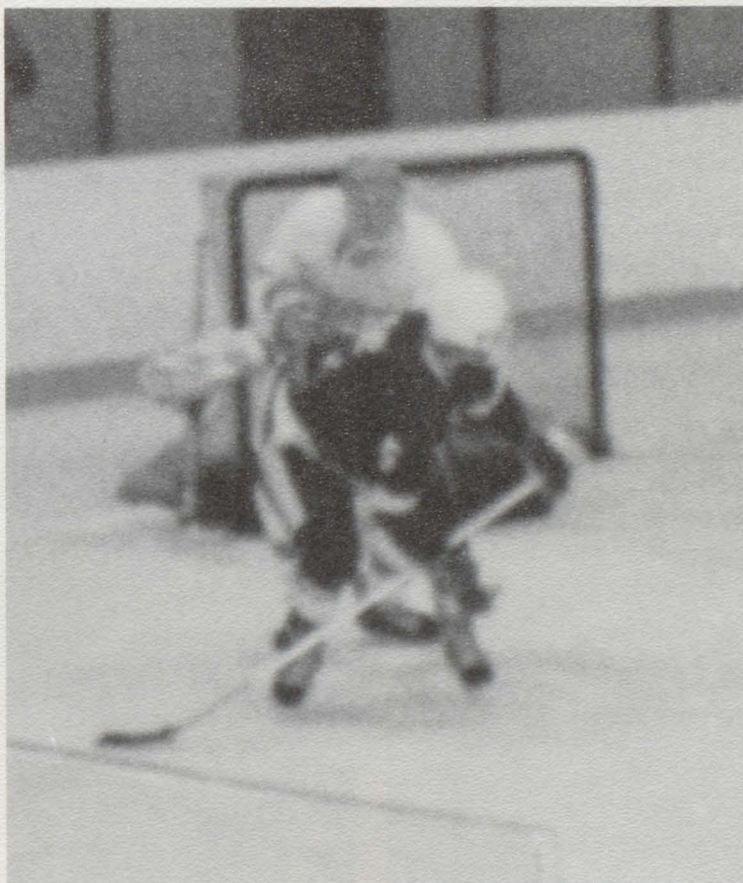

Scott Schroeder was the assistant captain.

Todd Rosbury was a captain and the goalie in the new.

Wherever the team played or wherever they traveled a cheering crowd followed.

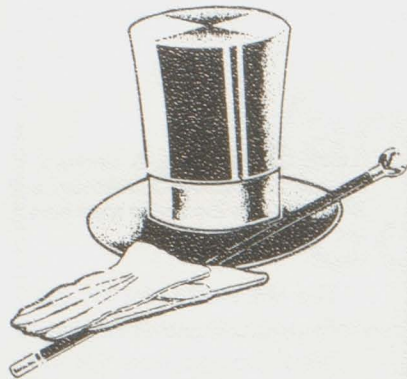

(LtoR): Todd Rosbury and Brian Coates play their final year on the ice as captains and best of friends.

Chad Melms shakes the hand of a Lumen Christi teammate after winning the game 7-4.

Varsity Volleyball

"Class Act"

The Marysville Viking Varsity Volleyball team had a very successful year.

The team took first place in S.C.A.L. The team was also very successful at tournaments. They took first at the Goodrich, Birchrun, Vassar and Almont tournaments while taking second at Dryden and Marysville.

"Volleyball has been a great experience. It's been a lot of fun especially with the people on the team", said senior setter, Kim Knuth.

The varsity starters come together to celebrate after Kara Dickinson serves an ace.

Boys' Varsity Basketball

The Marysville Viking Boys' Basketball team had a respectable season finishing the regular schedule with a 10-10 won-lost record.

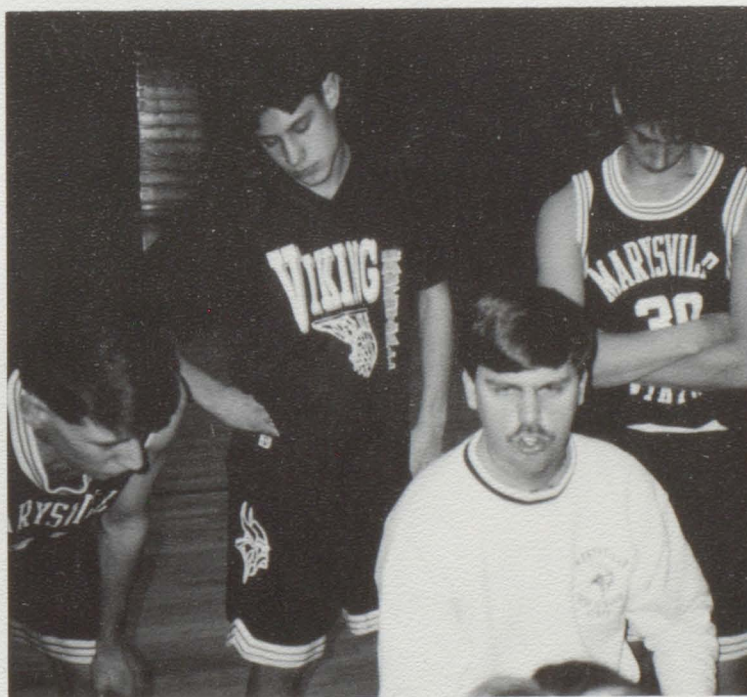

Senior Matt Jones said, "We went through a season of ups and downs and still managed to stay together. I had a fun year, and I'll miss high school basketball."

Coach Kirk Smith stated, "We have had some very close games against top area teams. We have lost some close decisions as well as won some very exciting contests."

Senior forward Ben Delor looks up at the scoreboard as he returns to the bench during a timeout.

Senior captain Ryan Cooley, Jason Hill and Skip Willoughby await the start of game introductions.

Senior Ryan Steinhaus passes the ball in to senior Ryan Cooley to start the beginning of a quarter.

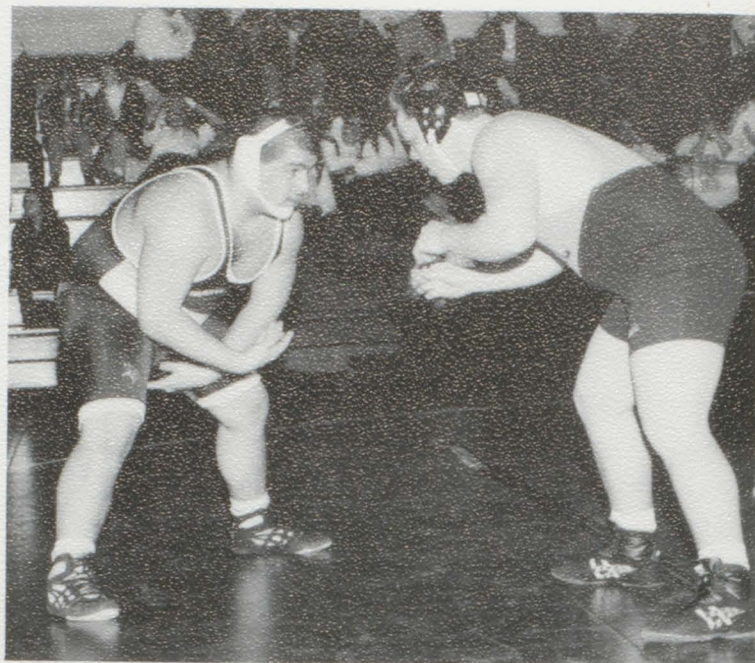

Wrestlers In Action

Junior, Doug Bassil, prepares to take down his opponent in the heavy-weight division.

Senior, Pat McKenney, tries to rack up some team points by pinning his opponent.

Junior, Chris Bryan, goes for the gold by pinning his opponent in a key SCAL match.

Boy's Swimming

Marysville High School has a student body and a faculty mind.

Staff keeps the school running smooth and keeps the "body" in mental and physical shape.

The Marysville staff does more than just teach. They fill the minds of incoming freshmen about the responsibilities of high school and warn the leaving seniors about the way life really is.

Don't they deserve a round of applause?

Students: Never underestimate the one at the podium!

Staff: Keep up the GREAT work!

New Teachers

We have three new teacher faces for the 1993-1994 school year. New teachers haven't been seen at Marysville in many years.

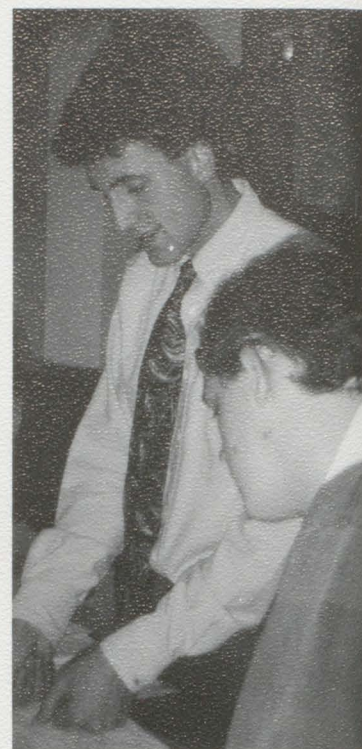

Mr. Dennis Aurand graduated from Saline High School. He came from Western Michigan University and is still attending classes at Wayne State. He is filling for Mrs. Janet Elsholz.

Mr. Steve Rogers graduated from Milford High School and went on to graduate from Central Michigan University. He was sent here through college placement to teach drafting. Mr. Rogers is involved in basketball, cross country and track.

Miss Colleen Coe is teaching English. She graduated from Powers High School and Michigan State University. She is following in her father's foot steps.

Armstrong Photographic

460 Michigan, Marysville, Michigan 48040  364-5900

Dear Dave,

Thanks for the great job you did on my pictures. I thought the extra time you took really made a difference. Even with my composite picture being taken a short time before the deadline, it was right on time, and the price was perfect. You did a wonderful job, and as a result, I really like my pictures...

Joann Turner

Dave,

You made the photo session very fun and interesting. I am recommending you to all my friends. You were a lot more friendly than any other photographer I met. I shopped around for the best and that's why I chose Armstrong Photographic!

Bonnie Burns

Dear Dave,

I'm very pleased that I went to Armstrong Photographic instead of the other place. Having my photos done here was much more relaxing, and I loved them. I'm sending my friends to see you...
